Experience

Blitz Magazine (UNSW)

August 2013

In August I commenced submitting theatre reviews to be published for our university magazine Blitz.

Benchmark Media

To commence August 2013

I have very recently been offered a short-term journalism internship with Benchmark Media, a Sydney-based finance-sector media publication.

Belvoir

November 2011 - Current

I have held a long-term internship in the publicity department of Belvoir, one of Australia's leading theatre companies. I have worked at least one day a week, holidays excepted, for over 18 months. I have had articles and blogs published online and in production programs.

Milk Crate Theatre

May 2012 – September 2012

I spent over four months as a marketing/administration intern for Milk Crate Theatre, a non-profit theatre company for people who have experienced homelessness or social marginalisation. This internship provided me with an opportunity to interview and produce features on members of the cast. These articles were published online, and are still available to view.

First State Auctions

August – October 2012

I spent two months compiling and composing the website content for First State Auction's new website.

Education

Bachelor of Media/Comms [Journalism]
